VENUE SYNOPSIS

Built in 1936, this theater retains its historic charm and offers audiences an intimate experience for every performance. Combining an elegant appearance with contemporary upgrades, it hosts a variety of performing arts, corporate and private events. The beautiful courtyard in front of the building provides an optimal outdoor location for entertaining, registration or a reception.

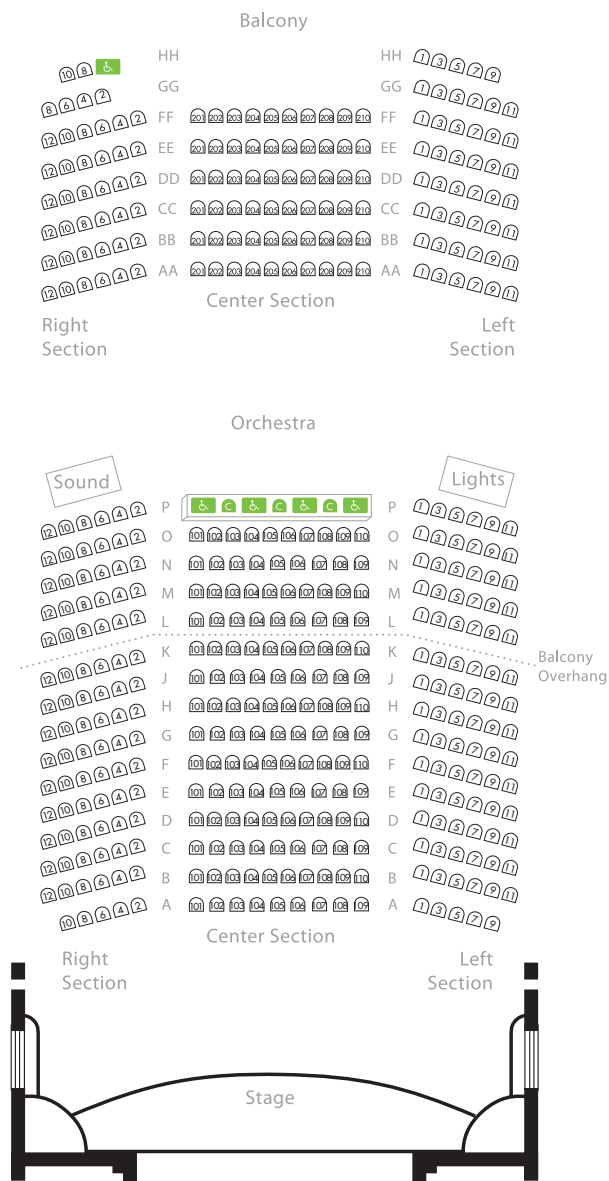

The Montgomery Theater is located a few steps from the San Jose Convention Center. There is a Light Rail stop nearby and several parking lots within easy walking distance.

The theater is home to two established performing arts organizations. CMT San Jose (originally known as Children's Musical Theater San Jose) is the nation's largest musical theater and training program for youth of its kind. Lyric Theatre has been performing operettas and musicals in San Jose since 1972.
